50 books before K is an extra special introduction to literacy. We have carefully selected 50 books that we think every child should read before they start Kindergarten.

Exercise this life-changing challenge with your child(ren); cuddle up close before bed, read in the park, or hang out at the library together! Wherever you choose to read, know that you are making an impact on your child's literacy development, social awareness, letter, number and colour recognition and you are building a life-long love of words!

- All Bodies Are Good Bodies (Barkia)
- The Aquanaut (Heinerth)
- The Bad Seed (John)
- Bats at the library (Lies)
- Carson Crosses Canada (Bailey)
- The Cat in the Hat (Dr. Seuss)
- Cat Problems (John)
- Cells: An Owner's Handbook (Fisher)
- Chicka Chicka Boom Boom (Martin)

Each book will be marked with an orange sticker. See our booklist online to place holds, or call or email us!!

- Choose Kindness (Ohi)
